JACKSONVILLE, ALA., Aug. 25, '72
W. B. FIGURES, Esq.

DEAR SIR:—All quiet about Jacksonville, some few Republicans for Greeley and all of the Democrats except some few of the most ignorant as they are termed. I wish to ask you a few questions which I am sure you will answer through your valuable paper. Having always had the utmost confidence in you as a journalist, I know you will answer them frankly.

1st. Have you gone over to the Secession Democracy?

2nd. If you have not gone over to the Democracy why do you pledge your support to the Secession Democratic ticket of the State of Alabama, in place of such noble and honest men as Hon. David P. Lewis and the Republican State Ticket?

3d. Would you directly or indirectly turn the State Government over to Thos. H. Herndon who refused to submit the ordinance of secession to the people of Alabama for ratification, in preference to such men as Hon. D. P. Lewis who, in the same Convention, voted against the ordinance, and then voted for the ordinance to be submitted to the people for their ratification?

4th. Why is it that none of the Republicans put in nomination for the Legislature in Madison county on last Monday received the nomination?

5th Is Mr. Warner a Carpet-Bagger now he supports Greeley? 6th Am I a Scalawag now I am going to vote for Mr. Greeley, because Mr. Greeley is a Republican that I think every Republican can rely on to enforce every law on the Statute Books even if it takes every soldier belonging to the U.S.A. to do it?

Now, Mr. Figures, you can answer the above questions so that all of the Republicans, both white and black, can understand, and I think you will surely do it.

Yours as ever,
JOHN A. DEARMAN.

Our friend, Judge DeArman of Calhoun, is entitled to an answer. He is an honest and patriotic man, has been and is a Republican, and is for Greeley.

1. We have not gone over to the Secession Democracy. There is no such Democracy now, any more than there is an Abolition party. It ceased to be, after reconstruction, the ratification of the 13th, 14th and 15th amendments; and the Democracy (and Liberal Republicans) now stand upon this platform:

1. We recognize the equality of all men before the law, and hold that it is the duty of the Government, in its dealings with the people, to mete out equal and exact justice to all, of whatsoever nativity, race, color or persuasion, religious or political.

2. We pledge ourselves to maintain the Union of these States, emancipation and franchise, and to oppose any reopening of the questions settled by the XIIIth, XIVth and XVth amendments of the Constitution.

The Liberal Republicans resolved and so did the Democrats, "for the promotion and success of these vital principles, and the support of the candidates nominated by this Convention (Cincinnati-Baltimore), we invite and cordially welcome the co-operation of all patriotic citizens without regard to previous political affiliations." Therefore, Judge, you find Republicans like you and thousands of others supporting Greeley, and the Democrats also ignoring old issues uniting in the above and the other (1 to 13) declarations, neither ceasing to be Republican nor Democratic, so far as old issues are involved.

But now "Democracy is not henceforth to stand for one thing and Republicanism for another, but that these terms are to mean in politics substantially one and the same thing, viz. Equal rights, regardless of creed, or clime, or color."

I hail this (Mr. Greeley says) as a genuine new departure from outward feuds and meaningless contentions, in the direction of progress and reform." Is it not so, Judge? And is it not good that it is so?

2 and 3. We believe General Grant's re-election for four years would aggravate present evils and not reform any abuses. It would continue in force the Spencer and Mail Contract and Carpet-Bag Ring in Alabama. We want Reform to be thorough and effectual; and to secure this, are for supporting of Greeley men, on the Cincinnati platform, to office, if honest and capable. The Reform movement ignores the past. If it did not, how could you and others of us support Greeley and Brown—the one a Whig free soiler, the other a Democratic one? How could Democrats support either? This election is upon present issues, not those that raged in 1860, twelve years ago. Saul, going down to Damascus, breathing out threatenings and slaughter against christians, became Paul chiefest of Apostles and none more zealous, effective, honored and ready for martyrdom; and christians did not rail at him for the past. Col. Herndon was wrong, in our opinion, in 1860, but he vindicated his faith by his blood on the battlefield, as did several of his associates: We and others, who aided secession after the act, became breve Secessionists, and legally in the same category. Col. H. II. has been quite conservative since the close of the war, and was three years ago for what the Cincinnati platform declares now. Besides, Messrs. Moren, Parker, Hollingsworth and Jolly were Douglas or Bell Union men in 1860, admitting Herndon, Barnett, Sanford and Baker to have been Secessionists—Connelly was too young in 1860 to have a public status. All are now for Greeley, Reform, Liberalism and the Rights of all as declared in the Cincinnati Platform. Their honesty, purity of character and capacity, have not been questioned.

Judge, this is no personal contest, if it was we should support personal friends. But it is one of vital principles, to secure a change and Reforms in the National Government, to give us a new National feeling, and to restore fraternal feelings. The hates and divisions before the war and since must not be forever kept alive, festering and fevering the body politic. Upon Greeley and Brown and their good platform, the people have resolved to make peace. You have accepted them, and now how can you reject their friends and support their political Great enemies? McKissick was a Secessionist Gardner, White, Parsons and Coulson were Blair and Seymour men in 1860, against Grant, for overthrowing the present State Government by the sword, declaring Reconstruction revolutionary, null and void (See Blair's Brothel letter). They are all now for Grant, for continuing his present policy, and if elected, will be an endorsement of Spencer's compact with Grant and be followed by S.'s re-election to the U. S. Senate! Is that the feast to which you would have our Liberal Republicans attend? Print it in your paper, and let all the principles never. Circumstances change, and the change involves new duties. The patriot must be and act them out publicly. We want Alabama to be in sympathy with Greeley's administration, and free from the control of Spencer. Therefore, we support the Greeley State Ticket. We did not make it, but take it as it is, because it represents principle, and its men are gentlemen of capacity and personal integrity. Judge, remember the advice given to the chosen people, "Speak to the children of Israel, that they go forward." Look forward with hope—not backward with dread.

Judge, are there any Liberal Republicans on the Grant State Ticket? Why were they proscribed? Why was Col. Bradley cast aside, when in financial and business qualifications, he is the equal of any one in the State? It was because he was for Greeley. Look at the names on the Grant Ticket, Judge, and tell us how old is their Republicanism? In 1863, when you and others were riding the petticoats of the pitiless political storm in this State, were any of them by your side, cheering and seconding your efforts? Were not nearly all of them firing grape and canister at you from the then hostile camp? or, keeping in quiet, safe quarters? They are all against you now, you being for Greeley & they for Grant, while the Greeley Ticket, if once against you, is now battling by your side. Will you turn the State over to Grant's friends, rather than to Greeley's present supporters?

4. The reason why no Liberal Republican is on the Madison county Ticket, is not owing to any want of confidence in or refusal to support one of several of that class, but who were not aspirants, is well known here, and creates no ill-feeling. We desire to see one on the Ticket, and so did hosts of Democrats; but undue influences were used to force one result, and others stood aloof. Experience has already shown the wisdom of resisting the attempted dictation.

A good ticket, of liberal gentlemen, was selected, who will be true to the people's interests, and to the rights of all. That is what is most needed at this time.

5. Gen. Warner never was a carpet-bagger. He bought a large farm when he settled in this State, and is identified with its wealth or woe. He refused to accept high office from General Grant and leave the State. No one who comes here to abide, office or no office, is a carpet-bagger. A carpet-bagger is one who is here for office alone, failing to get or deprived of that, he leaves. He is a bird of passage or prey. Fister was one. We would as soon vote for a man of Northern or foreign birth, if right in all other things, as for one to the master born, in no ways superior.

6. "Scalawag," Judge, is a nickname, just as Locofofo was years ago, and no gentleman applies it to another gentleman. When used now, it is only intended to designate the low characters, who hang on the skirts of the carpet-bag Federal office-holding Ring, doing their dirty work, and hoping to get a few crumbs. Don't you see Judge, that the whole party machinery is kept in the hands of the Spencer Carpet-Bag Ring; and through that machinery Alabama is to be ruled in its sole interest?

We believe Greeley will be elected, and that will restore Peace, bridge the bloody chasm, bury the hates and woes of the past; and the majority of all citizens will be undivided. Is not this so now, except that colored men who are for Greeley are worse than Kluked by other colored men! The laws will be enforced and troops will not be needed, for new officials will be in position who will not rudely and offensively and unnecessarily carry troops with them to prey upon the people. "The pen is mightier than the sword," and this will be illustrated again after the 4th of March. And you, Judge, and all of us will rejoice to see our whole people dwelling together under their own vines and fig trees, with none to molest or make afraid.

The alleged marvelous discovery of diamonds in Arizona is fast assuming the appearance of a幻影, if not a fraud of huge dimensions. A very efficient damper has been placed upon it by the London Times, which states that, a few months ago, an American came to London and brought up a lot of diamonds, without regard to quality, which have been used by the alleged discoverers of the Arizona mines to sustain their assertions. These statements are made upon the authority of a prominent diamond-brokerage house in London, and will create a very general feeling of distrust in the stock concern which has been organized in New York upon the basis of these alleged discoveries. The whole affair looks like a swindle of the biggest description.

In 1855, the Know-Nothing party, of which Henry Wilson was then one of the leaders, indulged in a riot in Louisville. The day of its occurrence is still remembered as "Bloody Monday." Dozens of the houses of the poor were burned to ashes. Nearly one hundred Irish men, women and children were murdered. Their gashed, and mangled, and mutilated corpses were exposed to public view in the Court House yard. A writer in the Washington Patriot, who claims to have been an eye-witness, says: "Mr. Blanton Duncan was leader of this mob, and most conspicuous with his scimitar." The Patriot says: "They were riding for bearing. If it should cost $10,000 worth of character away from Mr. Duncan, that person might have none left."

The following order was issued by General Grant while he was in command of the Department of Tennessee, Dec. 17, 1862.—The Jews, as a class, violating every regulation of trade established by the Treasury Department, also Department orders are hereby expelled from the department within twenty-four hours from receipt of this order by Post Commanders. They will see that all this class of people are furnished with passes and required to leave, and any one returning after such notification will arrested and held in confinement until an opportunity occurs of sending them out as prisoners, unless furnished with permits from those headquarters. No permits will be given these people to visit headquarters for the purpose of making personal application for these permits. By command

U. S. GRANT, Major General.

By malice whispered round.

Who views, in all its pomp and power,
Can treat with just neglect and care,
And piety, though clothed with rags,
Religiously respect.

Who to his plighted words and trust
Has ever firmly stood;

And, though he promised to his loss,

He makes his promise good.

Whose soul in unary distaste

Hates to employ,

Whom no rewards can ever bribe,

The guiltless to destroy.

Gone Before.

There's a beautiful face in the silent air,

Which follows me ever and near,

With smiling eyes and amber hair,

With a smile so bright and fair,

THE CHALLENGE.

Editors Montgomery Advertiser:

Some doubt has prevailed since the war as to which is the banner Democratic and Conservative county of Alabama.

To place this question beyond controversy or doubtful conjecture, we enclose herewith a challenge from Calhoun county to any and every county in the State to enter now the contest for this distinguished honor. The present campaign is one full of interest to every patriot, involving as it does issues the most vital that have ever been presented for the consideration of our people. The principles which are to decide and govern the future policy of the two opposing parties have been clearly defined and communicated in their respective platforms; the proposition is no longer debatable, that upon the success or defeat of the Conservative party depends the weal or woe of the South, national fraternity or sectional antagonism, and the restoration of a Republican form of government with all of its beneficial results, or the establishment of a centralized despotism with its measureless evils and intolerable oppressions. All true Alabamians appreciate this fact, and will leave no stone unturned, and no honorable means untried, to secure a conservative triumph. With this determination on the part of the people already made manifest throughout the State, a large number of conservative voices will be heard in November next no louder than has been at any election since the war, and hence no favorable opportunity soon, if ever, will occur to determine the democratic and conservative strength of the several counties and decide as between them this disputed and unsettled question.

We propose that the Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Democratic and Conservative Party of the State shall decide the contest as soon as practicable after the election in November next, and present the champion county with a handsome banner bearing the inscription:

"You the Executive Committee of the Democratic and Conservative Party To—The Banner county of Alabama; the blank after 'To' to be filled with the name of the successful county. In order to provide the means for purchasing the banner we herewith enclose Five (5) Dollars to be handed to Col. Robert Tyler, Chairman &c, and suggest that every county entering the list of contestants be required to contribute like amount and the contest be confined exclusively to the counties thus responding."

JAMES CROOK,

GEO. T. TURNLEY,

L. W. GRANT,

Executive Committee of Democratic and Con. Party of Calhoun co.

JACKSONVILLE, ALA., Sept. 3, 1872.

Col. Robt. Tyler, Montgomery, Ala.

DEAR Sir: Desiring to do every thing in our power for the success of our cause, that is honorable and legitimate, we submit for your adoption, amendment or rejection the above plan as one of the means for bringing out the full strength of our party. We simply submit it for what it is worth and should you in the full exercise of your discretion deem it impracticable please feel no hesitancy in suppressing it.

As the banner would cost, but little, we thought that if the County would generally respond, you would realize something over and above the amount, to aid you in carrying out your plans in organizing the campaign. With profound respect we are,

Your Ob't Serv'ts,

JAMES CROOK,

L. W. GRANT,

GEO. T. TURNLEY.

CHALLENGE.

Calhoun county will roll up a larger majority for Greeley and Brown and the Democratic and Conservative State ticket in the election in November next than any County in the State in proportion to voting strength as determined in the last Gubernatorial election, and hereby challenges any and every County in the State to enter the contest.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE,

of Calhoun county.

Dave Lewis the war miller and Confederate sneak, has been trying to arouse the prejudices of Confederate soldiers on the "soldier and sailor" plank in the Cincinnati platform. After sneaking like a cur in the rear of the Federal army during the latter part of the war, misrepresenting and abusing the Confederate soldiers, he is in no condition to advise or appeal to Confederate soldiers on anything. Confederate soldiers spurn Lewis and his impudent appeals.

In giving his testimony before the Ku-Klux Committee, while relating the instance in which Stillings, a poor, inoffensive citizen of Marion was killed on the public streets by a ruffian negro, chose rather to give the story of the negro and his wife, two people who could not have been disinterested witnesses) than the true story that he must have heard on the streets from the lips of impartial eye-witnesses. According to Speed's tale, poor Stillings was quite a ruffian, though at the time his employer, the proprietor of the Marion Commonwealth, gave him the character of being a most peaceful and inoffensive man.

The Democrats and Liberals have made gains of five per cent in the New England States of Vermont and Maine. In the Middle and Western States they will do better, but if they do not this is a sufficient increase to elect Mr. Greeley.

KNIFE!

It seems that one NeSmith of Somerville, Ala., was a "delegate" from Alabama to the Bourbon Louisville Convention; and we are indebted to Mr. NeSmith himself for the information. But from the following letter from him to the President of the Convention, the people of Alabama may never have known that the heroic NeSmith had ever been there: It seems, from what we can understand of the matter, that the last hope of NeSmith departed when O'Connor declined and that he (the editor) fearful of being crushed out forever felt the necessity of withdrawing Alabama from the Convention. Let us be thankful that his "nerve" was equal to the emergency. However we may be disposed to "censure" NeSmith for having carried Alabama into the Convention, let us bury re-entertained and rejoice that he had nerve and strategy enough to bring Alabama out again. We even go further, and in view of our deliverance at the hands of the prudent NeSmith refrain from declaring either for our candidate or his opponent.

But See. See NeSmith's letter below. How Jones Lyons, Chairman of the Louisville Convention and Gentleman of the Convention:

I alone had nerve enough to enter an appearance here from Alabama, and this I did with a full knowledge of the much I must be exposed by the resolution folks at home and elsewhere. But the pressure about Alabama to resist the pressure about Alabama to not enable me to withdraw Alabama from the Convention.

In my opinion the purposes for which it convened are wholly defeated in the resignation of Charles O'Connor, and that any further effort to sustain them by nomination and a ticket in this Presidential canvass, no matter who may be the standard bearer, now, might be considered a serious blow to our friends and lasting contempt of our friends and supporters, and render future organization more difficult, if indeed it did not crush us forever.

In taking this course it is not to be understood that I declare for either Mr. Greeley or Mr. Grant, or a third belief that with him as our standard bearer we would have effectively arrested the line of Empire, and rendered Democratic Government in its original purity. I am respectfully,

C. C. NESMITH,

Somerville, Ala.

RED HEADS.

All red headed men, whithersoever dispersed over the globe, will thank the local of the Enfield Daily Times for the following eloquent apology for red heads: Let them no longer hide the glories of their sun locks with dead heads of gauze, hair dyes and such. Let them no longer conceal their blushing poll in the ample retreat of hats that "come down, well all around." No, let them rather fling their amulets to the breeze and hold up the coquettish heads. Every red headed man in the State, under whose eye it may come, will clip the following out and put it in his "we-Kit" pocket. We are willing to borrow fifteen cents that he will.

Apology for Rep HAIR.—The local editor of this paper is ever and anon compelled to make a joke upon our Catoctinian friends; and now (2'd class a.m.) while he is locked in the arms of Morphine, or some other conductor in devility, to prop to defend our maligned, though replete "squash."

It is a well known fact that the color of his cephalic superstructure, wherein the festive fly delighted to revet, notwithstanding the perils of such a reckless performance, is that under which the preposterous owl and other nocturnal vagabonds and monsters ply their unholy vocations. Ours is the diminutive refuge of that repellent luminary whose radiance awakes the world, and the sun and stars and dead and the moon. He is the light that darkens upon the horrified breasts from the marshes of the ocean monster; our the proud crimson that wras the royal breast and flashes upon the standards of earth's grandest nationalities. His is the tint of the corvine plunderer of the budding corn, and of the midnight despoiler of the virtuous maiden's dream; ours, the drapery of a maiden's dream, the auroral blush of youth's first love, and a constant and philanthropic burlesque on the topes' proscenium. His is the insignia of the barbarous chieftain, that shirtless stalks along the sands of Congo's dismal coast; the bright covering of the regal head of England's ancient monarch, the peerless Bill Ruffus, who, like the last great Cook Robin, was slain with bow and arrow.

Having thus apologised for our capillary luminosities, we forgive the malefactor whose envy would fain outrage us with the shears of Delilah.

Scene in the Bourbon Convention Geo. Francis Train put out.

The rights of the Labor Reformers came up in discussion. The President of the Convention gave the Labor Reformers to understand that they had few rights there. This brought Geo. Francis Train to his feet, who demanded of the chair an explanation. We will let the reporter of the New York Tribune, an eye witness, tell the rest.

A scene of terrible confusion ensued. The whole body on rats, snakes and venomous reptiles because they offend us or injure us in our natural bodies? What is rat or snake or venomous reptiles in the natural world, to a Southern Radical in society? Virtue trembles in his presence; every fibres quivers; every muscle quivers; no name; their whole lives are passed in felonious conspiracies against their neighbors and their State, and in secret policies with negroes to subvert the South.

It is he, rather than his country, who now realizes the fute of that "wound eagle," so happily stolen from Byron's English Bards by the eloquent gentleman:

"So the strack eagle, stretched upon the plain,

more through rolling clouds to soar again,

Viewed his own feather on the fatal dart

And winged the shaft that quivered in his nest,

Kewen his pang; but keener far to feel

He nursed the pain; but impelled to feel

And the same plumage that had warmed his nest,

Drank the last life-drop of his bleeding breast."

What must be thought of a gang of people who are less than Lewis, Parsons and White as the most respectable of their numbers? What must the others be?

"Old Shanghai," alias Sandford, the gentleman who was recently a member of the "Long Senate," and who sustained every radical measure, almost, introduced into that corrupt body, is a candidate for the Senate again,
we understand.

The Brass Band treated us to some good music Friday morning from the balcony of the court house. We wish they would play in public more frequently than they do. It is a great source of pleasure to our people.

We are pained to announce the death of Abel Phillips, a most excellent and worthy citizen of our county for the last twenty-five or thirty years. For some two or three years he was afflicted with cancer which finally terminated his life on Wednesday last.

Next Wednesday night at the court house Rev. Sam. Henderson will address the colored men who may attend to hear him. Every colored man in the county is invited to be present. The Greeley and Brown club will meet at the same time and place.

It was our pleasure to be present at the formation of the Greeley & Brown Club in Beat No. 8, the proceedings of which are published in another column. The attendance was large and the liveliest interest was manifested by the intelligent and patriotic assembly. So far Beat No. 8 is moving forward exactly right.

There was a rousing meeting at Beat No. 12 last Monday. We were not present, as we expected to be, but learn from report that it went off splendidly. Beat No. 12 is all right and will poll a powerful vote in November for the Liberal and Democratic nominees.

Mr. GRANT.—Please count June Bug in for that Banner. We don't intend that Beat No. 8 shall walk over the track. She must work if she gets it. June Bug most generally rolls up as heavy a Democratic vote according to strength as any of them. DEMOCRATS.

The Radical paper at Attalla asserted some days ago that there were six Democrats in the little town of Attalla who would not vote for Greeley, whereupon a vote was taken, and the result was that Greeley got forty votes, Grant two, and two men were left who would not vote at all. Several of those who voted for Greeley were once Republicans.

We hear of one man in this county who says he would rather vote for Grant than Greeley. He reminds us of the colored gal, who when asked to take some Spring chicken said: "Oh no, Spring chicken is too hard for my stomach—
I will take some of the hog and hominy, if you please, sah!"
Greeley is too hard for his stomach
—Grant aint.

There is a bundle of the Ten Is-of the Cane Creek church call and get them that they may be distributed among the members.

Confederate Constitution and Government was good enough.

Col. N. H. White—Dear Sir—
We are fast organizing into a competent government the seceding States of the South. A full presentation from Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, South Carolina and Florida, have without voting strength, a handsome BANNER to cost twenty dollars, bearing the inscription: "The Banner of Calhoun County."

Beats desiring to enter the contest are requested to signify the same by note addressed to this paper, which we will publish.

READ THIS AND CIRCULATE IT.
—It must not be forgotten that the laws of Alabama require all voters to register before voting. No ballot will be counted unless the name of the man who deposits it can be found on the Registration lists.

Our Constitution is modeled on the Constitution of the U. S. As you will see it as soon perhaps as you receive my letter, or nearly so, I need not speak of it further than to say, that everything good, in the old constitution is retained, and some points are guarded, in the present instrument, through which will be seen to it that it is not neglected. Those who seek the protection of the laws must first render the laws due observance.

Louisville.

The Louisville Convention thought it would not let off Mr. O'Connor so easily. In spite of his unalterable resolution to remain in private life, it nominated him for President by acclamation, and informed him, in a rather peremptory telegram, that it "held him bound." We don't exactly understand how; but Mr. Duncan held Mr. O'Connor bound; and all the Louisville delegates determined to vote for him, whether he likes it or not.

And really we don't see why they should not. If they meant to elect anybody, it might be proper that they should have a candidate willing to accept the office. But the movement being nothing but a blind, the acceptance is a matter of no consequence whatever. All they want is a name that will look well on banners and handbills; and if they had seen fit to put up Andrew Jackson in place of Mr. O'Connor, and the late John Quincy Adams in place of his respected grandson, they might have voted for those departed celebrities with just the same effect as their votes are now likely to have, and with a great deal more comfort. Indeed, a dead candidate would on many accounts serve their purpose much better than a live one. The name of Mr. O'Connor, however, was the only thing which gave the convention an appearance of respectability, and it is not at all wonderful that the convention should refuse to give it up at the demand of the owner. The starving thief excuses himself for the theft of a loaf of bread; and Mr. Duncan may justify the appropriation of Charles O'Connor's name on the principle that self-preservation is a law of nature.

The convention also formally committed itself to the doctrines of Mr. O'Connor's extraordinary letter. These are:

1. That Grant would make a safe President for a second term, because the measure of his ambition would then be full, and he would have no temptation to continue in his present lawless course.

2. That Bourbon Democrats ought to vote for Grant because he has usurped authority, and decentralization is one of the leading principles of the Democratic faith.

3. That Government should do nothing which can possibly be done by private individuals, and therefore that carpet-baggism should be continued.

4. That no money should ever be borrowed under any circumstances by Federal, State, County, or Municipal Governments.

5. That the expense of all wars should be paid instantly by the men who fight them, and of all public improvements by the men who build them,—whether they can or not.

6. That the Louisville Convention is a fraud, which will do no good to anybody except Grant, and therefore those who cannot vote for Grant and do not like him ought to sustain it for the sake of promoting his election.

Having thus adopted a platform which disputes all the old Democratic doctrines, and expressly asserts that the Bourbon party has no excuse for its existence, and having forced the nomination upon a gentleman who twice formally and peremptorily refused it, it seemed difficult for the Convention to do anything sufficiently grotesque to sustain its high character of absurdity. But they rose to the level of the occasion, under the pressure of Mr. O'Connor's second refusal, and nominated for President a man so ridiculous that he could not himself escape the conviction of his own fantastic unfitness. Even James Lyons, locally known as the American Lamarrine, declined the honor of a candidacy from this distracted mob. From the moment when Mr. O'Connor peremptorily forbade the use of his name, the Convention did nothing but fly around in the eccentric fashion of decapitated poultry. Of course, in accordance with the eternal relations of things, Mr. George Francis Train could not be absent from such a scene. The fast and furious orator appeared for only a moment; but his shrieks and struggles as he was borne from the hall, shaking his eloquent arms and tossing his rhetorical legs above the heads of the enraged assembly, lent a picturesque aspect to the closing scenes. What they may do to-day, if they conclude to meet again, cannot be foreseen and is of little consequence. They are capable of going back to Mr. O'Connor, or of nominating Gen. Grant and paying thus loyalty for their free passes and their board-bills. But there is danger in any longer delay. Brevity is the soul of force, and if these low comedians want to be kindly remembered they would better get off the scene at once and let the campaign go on.

New York Tribune.

Two carpenters in Newburyport, Mass., recently had a nail driving match. One drove in 65 nails per minute, while the other drove 75 in the same length of time, including his thumb-nail.

Speed is now a characteristic feature in the Radical party of Alabama, and yet few are they who would point to that fact as favoring its chances for coming out ahead in next November.

Not Written by Greeley but a Supporter of Grant.

The organs of the great Gift Taker are laboring very hard to prejudice the minds of the Southern people against Mr. Greeley, by flying in their columns an extract from an article which appeared in the New York Tribune during the late war, expressing the hope that "when the rebellious traitors are overwhelmed and scattered like leaves before the angry wind, & return to their homes they must find poverty at their firesides, and privation in the anxious eyes of mothers and the rags of children."

Mr. Greeley has twice denied writing this article, and in the Tribune of the 26th of July: once more emphatically contradicts it, adding to its denial an important revelation. "Mr. Greeley," says the Tribune, "never wrote the above, never prompted or approved it, and never saw it till after it was printed." This is emphatic. We may properly add the fact," continues the Tribune, "that the man who did write it is now one of the most earnest and prominent editorial supporters of Grant, Wilson and Coulking in this city."

A Singular Phenomenon.

The Evergreen Observer furnishes the following account of a singular phenomenon which we hope some scientific mind will take the trouble to explain. We do not remember having met an account of any thing more strangely unaccountable than this in all our reading. W. J. Gilmore, of Sumter, is on the Radical ticket as a candidate for elector for the State at large. We recollect a little episode in Gilmore's life. He used to live in Choctaw. He had something to do with the school money and other county funds. On one occasion he had several thousand dollars of these funds in his possession, in his house, and the greater portion of it in gold, if our recollection serves us right. His house (a log house, worth about $50) was burnt one night and the money went where the woodbine twineth. But the strangest part of the affair is, that not a trace of the gold could be found in the ashes, although diligent search was made.—We wouldn't intimate that the honorable gentleman burnt his house, we only mention this little circumstance as a curious instance of gold burning up and leaving no sign.

And yet another dissatisfaction Bourbon—Mr. Delegate Clem, of the Ninth Indiana Congressional District—comes out in a card, in which he rehearses the flagrant wrongs suffered by him at the hands of the Louisville Side-Show. Said Clem avows and affirms that the Louisville meeting was justified and imagined by men wholly for selfish purposes, its main object being to secure the re-election of President Grant. Aboriginal Democracy has lost all charms for Mr. Clem, and that gentleman is but one of many thousands in Indiana who will date their conversion to the Reform movement on the 4th day of September.

Mr. O'Connor's LETTER.—Chas. O'Connor is too honest and fair a man to deal in false pretences; hence his letter to Louisville does not pretend to disguise his real purpose of breaking down the Liberal movement and aiding the re-election of Gen. Grant. He does not hold out a hope that the Louisville cabal can elect its ticket. He exonerates his objections to Greeley; he conceals or belittles the faults of Grant's administration, and suggests that after he gets re-elected the General will probably amend them. He does his best to make the Democrats forgive or disregard them.—N. Y. Tribune.

New York Paper.

It is reported that a man in Cincinnati fell from the top of a four-story building the other day, to the stone sidewalk beneath, without being injured in the least. He was a life insurance agent, and struck on his cheek.

Alexander H. Stephens has written a letter to Attorney General Williams, in which he seconds the appeal of Gerrit Smith in behalf of the Ku-Klux confined in the Albany State Prison. Mr. Stephens thinks the moral effect of the exercise of the pardoning power in these cases would be wide-spread among the people where these bands originated.

TOMATO STEAK.—The great variety of dishes, which this staple vegetable is served into, renders it, perhaps, second to no other, during its season, in the whole vegetable kingdom. Take a good sized, smooth tomato, split it up into slices, three-fourth of an inch thick, and broil it on a griddle, precisely as you would a beef-steak, season just the same, and you have a dish for an epicure. This mode of cooking is quite new to me, and probably is to others, if so, try it once.

Hon. James Lyons, President of the Louisville gathering, declared, after the adjournment of that body yesterday, that the proceedings of the Convention, in forcing the nomination of O'Connor and Adams, were a mere farce, and that he would not support Adams.

For the Last Time.

There is a touch of pathos about doing even the simplest thing "for the last time." It is not alone kissing the lips of the dead that gives you this strange pain. You feel it when you have looked your last time upon some scene you have loved—when you stand in some quiet city street, where you know that you will never stand again. The actor playing his part for the last time, the singer whose voice is cracked hopelessly and who after this once will never stand before the sea of uplifted faces disputing the plaudits with fresher voices and fairer forms, the minister who has preached his last sermon—all these know the hidden bitterness of the two words "never again." How they came to us on birth-days as we grow older. Never again young—always nearer and nearer to the very last—the end which is universal, "the last thing" which shall follow all last things, and turn them let us hope, from pains to joys. We put away our boyish toys with an odd headache. We were too old to walk any longer on our stilts—too tall to play marbles on the sidewalk. Yet there was a pang when we thought we had played with our merry thoughts for the last time, and life's serious, grown-up work was waiting for us. Now we do not want the lost toys back. Life has other and larger playthings for us. May it not be that these, too, shall seem in the light of some far-off day as the boyish games seem to our manhood, and we shall learn that death is but the opening of a gate into the new land of promise?

Born Drunk.

Among the names registered at the Tombs the other night was that of a youth about fifteen years of age, who had been arrested for drunkenness. But he was not drunk, nor had he been drinking. He was moreover, in good, sound health, but gave all the external indications of being intoxicated when arrested by a police officer. Upon protesting to the keeper of the Tombs that he was not intoxicated, it was revealed that the unfortunate youth had been born a natural drunkard, or rather that he had always acted like such a thing. He said that, although in good health, he had never been able to walk without staggering. His speech was not unlike that of persons in a state of intoxication; and when excited he would mutter and reel. The unfortunate youth was detained until the next day, and was not sent to the courts to be gazed at through judicial spectacles. A subsequent investigation of the case proved that the lad had been telling the truth about himself, but his condition revealed a demonstration of that natural law that the child is a fair copy of his parents. It appears that prior to marriage, the father had been a secret but confirmed inebriate, and when the facts became known to the woman thus suddenly and unexpectedly, she wept in the most terrible manner. Almost broken-hearted, she contemplated the future misery in store for her. Months passed away, when it was discovered that the child at three years of age acted strangely, and at the end of six months the unhappy woman fully realized all her forebodings. The effect produced upon the mother was not without its influence upon the father, however. Realizing in the midst of tears of bitter anguish, the sin that had been visited upon the child, the man reformed. He has now several bright children, and most exemplary ones, too, they are. But the boy who was brought into the Tombs was not drunk, but has entailed upon him a life of misery, as it was a blasted destiny.

New York Paper.

Sam. Bard, of the Chattanooga Herald, a Grant paper, has not yet refunded the $14,000 which the rats ate up while he was a Revenue Collector. Sam. is an old rat himself and does not want his warn't disturbed. Hence his support of General Grant.

Who is this man Lewis, the Radical candidate for Governor of Alabama? is a question often asked in our hearing. The Florence "Times" says: "He is, to use the language of an old justice of the peace in this county, the fat sooty of Judge McKinstry, of Mobile." The "Times" has settled it—no further questions will be asked. Mobile Register.

General Grant has halted the pardons about being issued to certain men in the Penitentiary at Albany, charged with belonging to the Ku-Klux organization in North Carolina. Alleged information from that State is the reported basis for the change of intention on the part of the President. Political considerations are far more likely to be at the bottom of the backlog in this matter. Keeping these men in prison may promise more fruits at the Presidential election in North Carolina than liberating them, and that is sufficient to take the key from their doors and leave them in their cells. The President wants to be re-elected, and he will pardon or hang men as one or the other course will lend to his advantage. He has no higher plane on which to act. He wants

THE CHALLENGE.

Editor Montgomery Advertiser:

Some doubt has prevailed since the war as to which is the banner Democratic and Conservative county of Alabama.

To place this question beyond controversy, we enclose with a challenge from Calhoun county to any and every county in the State to enter now the contest for this distinguished honor. The present campaign is one full of interest to every patriot, involving as it does issues the most vital that have ever been presented for the consideration of our people. The principles which are to determine and opposing parties have been clearly defined and enunciated in their respective platforms; the proposition is no longer debatable, that upon the success or defeat of the Conservative party depends the welfare of the South, national fraternity or sectional antagonism and the restoration of a Republican form of government with all its beneficent results, or the establishment of a centralized despotism with its measureless evils and intolerable oppressions. All true Alabamians appreciate this fact, and will leave no stone unturned, and no honorable means unployed, to secure a conservative triumph. We are determined that the part of the people already made manifest throughout the State, a larger democratic and conservative vote will be cast in November next no doubt, than has been at any election since the war, and hence no favorable opportunity soon, if ever, will occur to determine the democratic and conservative strength of the several counties and decide as between them this disputed and unsettled question.

We propose that the Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Democratic and Conservative Party of the State shall decide the contest as soon as practicable after the election in November next, and present the champion county with a handsome banner bearing the inscription:

"From the Executive Committee of the Democratic and Conservative Party. To the banner of Calhoun county, which is to be filled with the name of the strongest county."

In order to provide the means for purchasing the banner we herewith enclose Five (5) Dollars to be handed to Col. Robert Tyler, Chairman &c., and suggest that every county entering the list of contestants be required to contribute a like amount and the contest be confined exclusively to the counties thus responding.

JAMES CROOK,

and Con. Party of Calhoun co.

JACKSONVILLE, ALA., Sept. 3, 1872.

Col. Robt. Tyler, Montgomery, Ala.

DEAR SIR: Desiring to do every thing in our power for the success of our cause, that is honorable and legitimate, we submit the following amendment or rejection to the above plan as one of the best for bringing out the full strength of our party. We simply submit it for what it is worth and should you in the full exercise of your discretion deem it impracticable, please feel no hesitancy in suppressing it.

As the Banner would cost but little, we thought that if the Counties would generally respond, you would readily something over and above the amount, to aid you in carrying out your plans in organizing the campaign. With profound respect we are

CHALLENGE.

Calhoun county will roll up a larger majority for Greeley and Brown and the Democratic and Conservative State ticket in the election in November next than any County in the State in proportion to voting strength as determined in the last Gubernatorial election, and hereby challenges any and every County in the State to enter the contest.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE,
of Calhoun county.

The Situation.

The situation is encouraging to every lover of his country.

Greeley and Brown are as certain to be elected the 5th day of November as that auspicious day rolls around.

The recent election in Vermont and Maine demonstrates the fact that Liberalism with all its warm and benign influences has melted, to some degree, even the cold New England heart.—With even the percentage of gain throughout the Union that we have had in these two States, Greeley is elected beyond peradventure. But we look for a much larger response to the Liberal movement from the middle and western States. The gain of the Liberals in the two New England States was, in Vermont 3000, and in Maine 5000, or an average gain of three per cent and now let us take the votes, and majorities in the first of the great States of Pennsylvania and Indiana for example and we will find that in Pennsylvania the average per centage of Republican votes required to turn the scale is 11:12, while in Indiana the average per centage of the Republican vote which transferred to the Democrats, would have turned the result in their favor, is 2:53—in both instances less than the gain in the New England States mentioned above. There can be no doubt that they will do much better than the New England States mentioned, but if they only do a little over half as well they will pronounce for Greeley in November. We present the votes from '60 to '70 and '71 in the two States, that our readers may see and calculate for themselves:

Average Republican vote in the elections: 152,446; average Democratic vote: 144,747; average Republican majority: 7,699; average per centage of the Republican vote which, transferred to the Democrats, would have turned the result in their favor: 2:53; and, moreover, there can be no doubt of Greeley's election in the Union, and the only question left for us to consider is whether Alabama will contribute by her electivity to that great result. That such may be the case, we must bestir ourselves, organize and go vigorously to work to bring every Greeley vote white and black to the polls. Apathy may not only lose us the honor of having contributed to the election of the honest old genuine of the Liberal party, but may even lose us the State election. While the whole country is rejoicing over the return of good government to come through the Administration of Horace Greeley, Alabama may have to sit down in the dust and bewail the fact that the engagement of her affairs have fallen into the hands of dishonorable men and thieves, into the hands of the Radical party, through the negligence of our own citizens. Our first and most immediate interest requires us to look to the election of our Democratic and Conservative State ticket. Whatever prejudices men may have against Greeley, by no means let these fail to come out and vote for our honest State ticket. We could enjoy none of the benign influences of Mr. Greeley's administration if we were under the immediate control of the gang of rascals that plagued us so grievously during the administration of that man so well described in Col. Ticknor's letter to Boss Spencer—the lazy, the confessed rascal Wm. H. Smith.

The Radicals, on the keen sent after the spoils, assisted by the money and influence of Grant's Government at Washington, will make a terrible fight for this State. It will require all our vigilance, all our strength to keep them from wresting it from our possession! If we are only true to ourselves, they cannot do it.

Post the Books.

At every election we have had since the nomination of Greeley and Grant, there have been favorable results for the former. Let us, recapitulate: North Carolina gave Grant 12,000 majority in 1868. The candidate for Governor now, by fraud and forgery, has only 2000 majority, while the Greeley men leave both United States Senators, State Legislature and Congressional delegation, etc. Such a result warrants us in putting down the old North State for Greeley in November. In West Virginia, which Grant carried by a large majority in 1868, there were no Grant candidates in the field at the late August election. Both candidates for Governor were Greeley men. The vote for Greeley will be two to Grant's one. This is conceded by all intelligent men. Vermont there has been a reduction of the Greeley majority of former years. In Maine, after an unparalleled canvass, we have gained 5000 votes or 125,000 cast. Thus our gains may thus be stated:

North Carolina 10,000
West Virginia, 20,000
Vermont, 3,000
Maine, 5,000

Total 38,000

This will do pretty well for four States. Look out for the thunder from Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania on the second Tuesday in October next.—Columbus Enquirer.

District Conference.

The District Conference of the Talladega District, North Alabama Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church South met in Jacksonville, Alabama, Sept. 12, and continued in session three days. There were present, Rev. W. R. Kirk, P. E. President.

From Cross Plains Circuit—Rev. W. C. Rowland, P. C., J. D. Posey, Rev. N. A. Wells.

Jacksonville Station—Rev. T. H. Deavenport, E. L. Woodward, J. F. Grant, J. M. Carroll, J. B. Turnley.

Fayetteville Circuit—Rev. C. L. Dobbs, Rev. Wm. Park.

Harperville Circuit—Rev. F. T. J. Brandon, Rev. N. H. Self.

Calusa River Mission—Rev. M. G. Foust.

Montevallo Circuit—Rev. G. R. Lynch.

Talladega Station—Rev. C. D. Oliver.

Shelby Iron Works Station, Centre Circuit and Blue Mountain Mission were not represented. Reports were called from the Circuits and Stations and all the interests of the Church looked after. In all the churches there had been revivals, hundreds had been converted and joined the church. Many young men and boys have commenced working for the church. The outlook in this respect is very encouraging. Prayer meetings are on the increase in numbers and spirituality. Class meetings are held in many places with interest and profit. The Sunday School cause is prospering. Perhaps the greatest progress is in this direction. Many new schools have been organized. In these schools most of the revivals began. Some churches have been built, subscriptions are being raised for others—some have been repaired. All these are evidences of prosperity for which every heart should be grateful. It is a source of regret, however, that so few have family worship, and that the condition of financial affairs is so embarrassed.—The former grows out of the fact that their parents do not feel as they should their obligation to God and their children. For the latter, there are several reasons—scarcity of money—negligence on the part of many stewards—putting off until the end of the year what should be done in the beginning—a want of system—but principally a want of an appreciation of the privileges of the Gospel and an obligation to them, and they commit sin in not paying to the support of the Gospel, that it is optional with them. God has made it a debt, and not only a debt but the first debt, and he who refuses or neglects to pay it robs God and his church. "Will a man rob God? Yet ye have labored me in tithes and in offerings." Whenever the church feels this obligation there will be no difficulty in this respect. After a thorough investigation we may safely say that the church in the Talladega District is gaining ground. The following is a part of the report of the Committee on Education: "The belief is gaining ground that the most hopeful means for a speedy conversion of the world is to direct increased attention to the religious education of the young. Some District Conferences have adopted the plan of establishing District High Schools at some central point in their area; the plan meets with general favor and promises well to the church. We suggest the initiation of some plan that looks forward to the establishment at some central eligible point, an institution known as the District High School. E. L. Woodward, Bruce Harris, W. M. Taylor, Wm. Park, J. H. Johnson, J. K. Armstrong, were appointed a Committee to look after this interest.

The session was a very pleasant one, preaching good and more persons communed on Sabbath than were ever known to do at this place.

Report of the Sunday School of the Methodist Episcopal Church South at Jacksonville, Fla.

As early as A. D. 1841 some pious women became interested in the children and began to call them together from Sabbath to Sabbath to teach them to fear God and keep his commandments. In this little school it seems there was no male teacher, or at least none in regular attendance, occasionally J. F. Grant was there. There were four teachers: Mrs. Stipes, Mrs. Francis, Mrs. Estel and Miss Eliza Laird. These four for three years met the children regularly, opened the school with singing and prayer, and instructed their classes. There was no organized church, no house of worship. Patiently they labored and waited for the reward. *It is impossible to estimate the value of those early labors or the debt this community owes those women. Two of them, Mrs. Stipes and Mrs. Francis have fallen to sleep leaving to their families and the community, the legacy of a good name which is as vintenour poured forth. They need no monument of marble they live in their works being dead yet still speak. "God buries his workmen but carries on his work." Mrs. Estel has not been connected with the school for some years, having moved away. She is now among us on a visit to her friends. Nearly four score years with their weight are pressing upon her, but buoyant in spirit, strong in faith, joyful in hope, growing old gracefully, she is coming to her grave.

Mr. Moreau, the leader of the Perpendicular Democracy in Indiana, who is now in New York City compelling Mr. Charles O'Connor to work Webster's Dictionary into political addresses, is said to be in the service of the Indianapolis Sentinel. He has made no denial of personally, nor has allowed any one else to do so, as in the case of the Know-Nothing charges against him. How is such silence to be construed?—Chicago Tribune.

WILLIAM BURNEY.

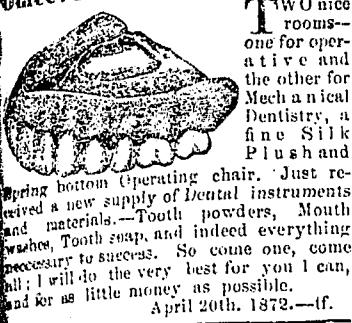

The developments in the Credit Mobilier scandal not only affect Republican Congressmen who expect to be re-elected, but they seriously affect the personal character of Henry Wilson who expects to be Vice President of the United States. He therefore, has a special interest in having the charge of his son removed from the Senate.

Fires are comfortable in Jacksonville now.

A correspondent of the Cherokee Advertiser speaks of that country as the Banner County. Has Cherokee entered the lists for that honor?

We invite the attention of Etowah County to the Challenge of Calhoun county in the first column of this paper. Come gentlemen, don't be bashful. Speak out.

OII LOVELY!!

A large and extraordinarily fine lot of Ladies and Gents' Hats, from the last train, on exhibition and for sale by Rosenberg.

Dick Johnson, Hal Forney and another young fellow absolutely hate themselves pulling at the Hose Carriage the night of the Fire alarm. They enjoy, however, the honor of being the first firemen at the post of duty.

We are indebted to Rev. Mr. Deavengport, the assistant Secretary of the District Conference, for the synopsis of the Proceedings we publish this week, as well as the Sunday school Report made by him at the request of the Conference.

We learn undoubtedly that several counties are preparing to take up the challenge of old Calhoun. We will have to stir our stumps gentlemen if we win, and win we must.

READY Made Clothing, of the very latest Fall styles, just opened by the case at Rosenberg's. Suits from the finest to the coarsest, to suit the market.

Jacob Rosenberg will establish a branch house at White Plains and attend it himself. He is a clever boy and we commend him to the good people of White Plains.

We wish to impress it upon the Beat Committees that they should make their reports of provisions subscribed by Wednesday at least sooner if possible.

We commend to the good will of the people of this community the honest colored men who have displayed the good sense they have in the act of aligning themselves with the people of this country. They have by their act shown themselves to be our friends, and are titled to our warmest friendship with all its benefits, in return.

BARBECUE.

Jeans, Cassimeres in Fall Patterns, just received, in large quantities at Rosenberg's.

Daniel Doss and Wm. J. Dale have shown us some of the fine syrup they are this year manufacturing. They sell at 75 cents per gallon.

The people of adjoining counties are respectfully and cordially invited to come to Jacksonville on the 1st of October and break bread with the people of Calhoun and keep the truth as preached politically by Sanford, Parker, Baker and others.

Messrs. T. J. Burnett and Gen. Alpheus Baker will speak at Edwardeville, Cleburne Co., Thursday Oct. 3rd. Let the people of Cleburne turn out en masse and give them a rousing audience.

Meeting of Beat No 8. Greeley and Brown Club.

The meeting of the Greeley and Brown Club of Beat No. 8 last Tuesday night was not without its good results. After the close of speeches, or rather talks, by Messrs. Wm. Scott, Capt. J. M. Renfro, and L. W. Grant, invitation was extended to all present to enroll their names as members of the Club. Upon this invitation ten of the best informed and most sensible colored men of the Beat came forward and enrolled their names. This makes eleven colored men from that one small Beat, one having joined at the first meeting. The people of that Beat pledge the colored men who have thus evinced a spirit of friendship, the amplest protection and the largest return of good feeling. We hope that they will prefer in all things those of the Club who are really sincere, and lose no opportunity to help them forward in the world. They deserve good treatment at the hands of their white neighbors.

And we would attract the attention of the white voters of other Beats to the action of Beat 8 and commend the example thus set. The colored vote can be had if we will go properly to work for it. In order to secure it we must be patient with them—remembering that they have to learn everything and faithfully and truthfully portray to them the situation of affairs and advise them candidly as to the course they should pursue. Let us not give them up to the scalawags and carpet-baggers. We owe it to them to deliver them from the political bondage these disreputable characters have imposed upon them.

Oxford Challenges Jackson-ville—Now For It!

Mr. GRANT:—It seems from the last few issues of the REPUBLICAN that you either want to challenge, or to be challenged, by some beat in the county on polling the greatest majority of votes for Greeley and Brown and Democratic State ticket. Oxford beat will enter the contest with you freely, feeling confident of gaining the victory; at least, we will make the contest lively. We make you three propositions. First, our box will poll the largest number of votes; second, we will give Greeley and Brown and the State ticket the largest majority; third, our colored voters will give our ticket a larger majority than yours. Submit this to your people for acceptance; if agreeable, the ball goes on until the victory shall be ours.

Oxford's Challenge!

Not without misgivings; but inspired with a determination to do anything and risk anything to secure the success of the Liberal National and State tickets, Jacksonville accepts the challenge of Oxford. In doing so we are aware that as the county seat, we will have to carry a large floating vote over which we have no control, and as a Beat, are in no wise responsible; but while this is the case we know too, that Oxford, as a town of large commercial importance and peculiar location, contends with the same difficulty. In the most amiable spirit in the world Jacksonville goes in to wear the laurel at the expense of her sister town, Oxford. Should she fail in her honorable endeavor, her amiability will not desert her; but with her own hands she will place the laurel on the brow of her plucky and more successful sister. The struggle, looking to its ultimate result, is one worthy the enlistment of every citizen of the two towns, and doubtless will be a most interesting one. From this day our people go to work.

The attention of the colored men is invited to the Challenge of Oxford. The people of Oxford claim that the colored people of that place will cast a larger vote for Greeley and Brown and the honest State ticket than will the colored people of Jacksonville. This we have denied for the colored people of our town and we trust that they will make our denial good. Will those colored men who take the challenge, to others of their race who do not take the paper and who cannot read.

After these speeches were over, the Club was called to order and parties present desiring to cast their lot with the supporters of Greeley and Brown and honest Government, were invited to give in their names for enrollment on the list of Club members; whereupon four of the most influential and best informed colored men of the town, gave in their names. The President, in behalf of the Club, gave them the amplest assurances of the friendship of every member of the Club and protection against insult and violence at the hands of wicked whites or foolish men of their own color. Their example will doubtless be followed by many colored men of the town at the next meeting, all the efforts of the carpet-baggers and scalawags to the contrary notwithstanding; the tricks and lies of whom our vigilant Greeley supporters find out and expose as fast as they are practiced or told. We have sufficient means

The Barbecue.

The barbecue to be given here by the people of Calhoun county, will be the largest one had in the county in ten years. There will be at least Five Thousand people present. Some of the most eloquent men of the State will be present to address this vast assemblage. The attractions of the day, aside from the public speaking will be great. It will be long remembered in the annals of Calhoun county as one of the greatest political gatherings ever held in her borders. This vast and patriotic meeting must not go away unfed and hungry. Jacksonville Beat is doing all she can to meet the requirements of the occasion, and she relies on her sister beats in the county to come up also to the help of the Committee. We know they will do it. The patriotic people of Calhoun have never failed yet on such an occasion.

Saturday night last, a false alarm of Fire was given, we presume, to test the efficiency of the Fire Company. The company soon arrived on the grounds and extinguished the flames of the barrels and gools boxes that were on fire, in a twinkling. It is a standing joke on the company, though, that every man in it forgot his spanner. Some of our citizens made tall steps to the scene of excitement and were much disgusted when they learned they had been brought out of their warm beds by the work of some "devilish boy."

EDITOR REPUBLICAN—How is it that the business men of the town (young men at that) take no greater interest in the Fire Company than they do. There is only one fireman on the East side of the square and yet the most valuable property of the town lies on that side. As a man owning a Real Estate, I am ready to quit unless those who should be more deeply interested bear a hand.

About the commencement of the last unpleasantness, Judge Rice made a speech in North Alabama, in which he said the Southern soldiers can whip the Yankees with pop guns. After the war, when things were a different aspect, he changed to make another, but very different sort of speech in the same place, when an insignificant voter who had heard and remembered the former boastful harangue, rolled up his sleeves and approaching the Judge questioned him as follows: Sam Rice, didn't you make a speech here in 1861?

"I did," said Sam. And didn't you say that we could whip the Yankees with pop guns? "Certainly I did; but the d—d rebels wouldn't consent to fight us that way!"

A Thieving Camp Meeting Incident

A correspondent of the New York Commercial Advertiser, writing from Round Lake camp-meeting, tells the following story:

Many people sleep in the same tent here, being separated by partitions. As young Methodist followers are throwed with pretty young ladies a good deal, it is nothing against them that they sometimes fall in love.

Last night, they say, this happened: A young Methodist fellow from Ballston had become quite interested in a pretty daughter of a religious farmer. Last night, while a dozen cold-hearted fellows were trying to sleep, they were continually disturbed by the lovers' spoony talk which they distinctly heard through the cotton cloth partition. They heard him say in a low, sweet Clarendon voice, "Now, Caroline, dear, do let me seal the vow—do."

"No, James, I cannot. What would father and mother say?" replied a sweet girlish voice.

"But Caroline, you have promised to be mine—now let us—do let us—won't you? Do kiss me!"

"No, James, I cannot—Oh, I cannot!"

In a moment the tent partition parted, and a big-whiskered brother, who wanted to sleep, shouted, "For God's sake, Carrie, let Jim seal that vow! He'll keep us awake all night if you don't."

The vow was sealed.

"Mamma," said a little girl, "what's the meaning of a book being printed in 12mo?"

"Why, my dear," replied the mother, "it means that the book will be published in twelve months."

Learned "Ben."

During the argument of a chancery cause in the Chancery Court of Calhoun county two or three terms ago, old Ben Gardner was bellowing away with a speech when the Counsel on the other side interrupted him with the remark that the proceedings he referred to was one in personam and the remarks he made did not apply. Benjaming gave his opinion in short of confident or hasty decision and responded with much disdain. "The gentleman needn't try to inform me what an action in rem or an action in personam is; I know very well what they are—one in rem is an action for real property and an action in personam is an action for personal property." The useless to say that the "gentleman" (who by the way is a ten cent column in the law) did not "try to inform" him further. The hero of the above story is the present Radical candidate for law-officer of the Commonwealth of Alabama, the Honorable (?) Danl. Grind.

General Banks, in his speech at the great Liberal mass meeting in New York last evening, predicted that Greeley would receive the Electoral votes of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, New and Old Virginias, Missouri, and Arkansas.

We happen to know that one of the leading Grant managers here gives up the State of Illinois as lost to Grant and Wilson beyond adventure. He hopes to make it up by carrying Indiana, but he won't. HOW JOE LOST HIS BET.—An old fellow named Joe Poole, very eccentric and an incorrigible stutler, was a constant loafer at the tavern in Westerford, Me. One day a traveller from a distant part of the State arrived at the tavern and was met by an old acquaintance, a resident of the town. After some conversation on different topics, the traveller was addressed as follows: "By the way Brown, look out for old Joe Poole to-night. You will know him quick enough by his stuttering. He will be sure to come along and tell that you've got a whole shirt to your back. If you take him up you will surely lose by a trick he's got. He invariably offers to lay this wager, and always wins. 'Very well,' said the traveller, 'I will not let him get ahead of me. Much obliged for the caution.' The evening arrived, and a large crowd was collected in the bar-room. Our friends were there, and old Joe Poole was present and in his element. 'I tell you wh-what. You are nicely dressed, but I'll bet you ten dollars you haven't got a whole sh-sh-shirt to your back.' 'I'll take the bet,' said the stranger. 'Put the money in the landlord's hands.' This being done, the traveller pulled off his coat, and was about following suit with his vest, when old Joe cried out: 'Ho-ho-hold on! You've lost. Ha-half your shirt is fr-front, and the other half is on your ba-back. There was a roar of laughter, but the newcomer did not mind it but pulled off his vest, too, and quietly turning his back to Joe, displayed to his astonished gaze a shirt neatly folded and placed underneath his suspenders. Of course the laugh was turned upon Poole, who acknowledged that he had lost the wager. He never offered to bet again.

The Barbecue.

Some have asked the County Executive Committee whether or not cooked viands will be received at the table on the day of the Barbecue. We are authorized to say yes. A great crowd is expected, and it will not do for them to go away unfed. The Barbecue was gotten up hurriedly and some of the Beats have reported nothing through their Committees for lack of time. We say to the people of those Beats, don't stay away on this account. If you can bring anything to contribute to the general store of provisions, do so. If not come along anyhow. This is no Town or Beat Barbecue. No one Beat could feed the great crowd that it is hoped will be here. It is a county affair, gotten up by the Committee to draw a large crowd to hear the speakers who will be here by appointment, on the day set, Tuesday, October 1st, 1872. We hope to see five thousand people here on that day and not a hungry man among them in the evening.

We again postpone the sketch of Col. Herndon, by Sargeant, and our notice of the campaign documents the scalawags are furnishing the negroes. Plenty time to notice them before the election.

We return thanks to Maj. B. F. Jones, Sec'y, of the Rome, Ga. &amp; Ala. Fair Association, for an invitation to attend the Fair on Oct. 8, 9, 10 &amp; 11. Whether we go or not we hope it will be grand success.

Buy your Bagging and Ties where you can get them the cheapest, Parr has both of a superior quality, his Bagging weighs from 2 $\frac{1}{2}$  to 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ , and will sell it for 20 cts per yard, ties 1 $\frac{1}{2}$  cts per lb.1 $\frac{1}{2}$ .

Parties who have contributed meats to the Barbecue, are requested to have the same on the grounds by 12 o'clock if possible. Flours contributed ought to be brought in Saturday, by all means.

The farmer's best friend, The merchant who will sell him Goods at the lowest price, Parr is the man, try him.

We invite attention to the advertisement of Messrs. LeGrand &amp; Co.

not because we fear it will be overlooked, but to add our testimony in favor of this excellent firm, from a personal acquaintance and transaction of business, running through two years. Dr. M. P. LeGrand, the head of the house, has been justly classed among the merchant princes of the South; and he seems to possess a genius and intuition in the selection of his Agents and Clerks, equal to that of Napoleon in the selection of his field Marshals. The immense capital employed, and large amount of business transacted, exceeding doubtless one million annually, enables them to offer Goods and Groceries at the lowest possible rates. Entergetic, prompt, systematic, fair and liberal in all their dealings, we doubt whether there has been a single case of dissatisfaction among the thousands with whom they have transacted business. The facilities for quick shipment from Montgomery are equal to any city of the South, and now is the time to fill up your Fall and Winter stocks of Goods and Groceries, upon the most advantageous terms by ordering them from LeGrand &amp; Co., Montgomery, Ala.

Dr. J. C. Francis returned from Tuscaloosa Friday, whither he had been to enter young Jas. Francis, son of Dr. M. W. Francis. Young Francis is a boy of fine mind and will, we predict, run an honorable college course.

"Seek and ye shall find" Col. Parr with the largest and best assort stock of plantation and family supplies ever brought to North Alabama, and he is determined not to be undersold by any other town or city in this section of Alabama or Georgia.

A grave mistake—buying a man alive.

The Radical negroes of this county will have a Barbecue at this place on Saturday (to-day) we understand, for the purpose of turning the Greeley tide. Some scalawags will address them—we cannot leave who. The whole affair has been managed in such a sneaking way, that it is hard to learn much; but the expenses of the thing, we hear, is borne out of the Radical campaign fund, dispensed by some mean whites in our midst.

It is further said that the crowd is to be augmented by large numbers of negroes from other localities, brought free over the Selma, Rome and Dalton Railroad.

They cannot find enough negroes to make a good crowd, so they just ship them from Calhoun.

PRIVATE.—Ike Heyman, Charles Pelham, Heflin and a lot of negroes, assembled themselves in secret conclave, Friday night in the Greene Building, for the purpose of ensuring a nomination by mastering up the courage of the blacks, which had been weakened by Pennington's speech against a nomination. Pelham, during his speech, said he had always been for freedom and wanted to see the negroes on equality with the white people, and thought it a damned hellfire shame (beautiful remark for congressional candidate) that it was not so.—Opelika Locomotive.

"Greeley will put your children into slavery."

"Congress did not nominate Greeley."

"Greeley is a Democrat;"

"Greeley will take your vote away from you;" is the lie, stuff and lies that the white scoundrels who are "running" Grant's interests, tell the colored men, and these are only a sample of a few of the mildest. Ought men who will deliberately tell such things be countermanded among gentlemen? We think not.

Duroc, a faithful old horse, older than a majority of the inhabitants of Jacksonville, is at last dead.

He was the most remarkable horse ever owned in this country.

His first owner, a school teacher named Garnett, frequently drove him to Talladega, thirty-six miles distant, after school hours, in the evening; and it is said he would drive him seventy miles a day without greatly fatiguing him. His last owner, Mr. Woodward, bought him about twenty-one years ago from Garnett. He used to drive Duroc to Rome fifty-two miles distant one day and back next, and he was humane in his treatment of him. Such a drive as that was as nothing to Duroc. At one time during the war some Confederate officers, struck with his appearance, conceived the idea that they would "impress" him, but the people of the town were so earnest in their solicitations that they should not, that they desisted and took a mule instead.

Duroc was something like twenty-seven years old, when he died, and was perhaps known to every adult citizen of the county.

Draper & Johnson are now receiving a magnificent stock of Fall and Winter Goods. Their advertisement will appear next week.

REV. E. T. SMITH, of Oxford, will preach in this place next Sunday and Sunday night.

Col. John H. Caldwell, our active and eloquent nominee for Congress has just returned from Cleburne, where he made a most effective speech, according to report of attorneys present, completely discomfiting Stanton's Ex-Gov. Wm. H. Smith, who preceded him in a speech.

Smith plead gross negligence in relation to the over issue of Bonds to Stanton, but stoutly maintained he had stolen nothing.

We are gratified to announce that Gen. Geo. S. Houston, and Hon. Richard W. Walker are expected at the Barbecue on the 1st of Oct., at which time they will address the people of Calhoun.

INDIANAPOLIS. Sept. 24. Hon. Dan'l W. Voorhees introduced Greeley to his audience here. Greeley announced as the password of the present canvass: Reconciliation and purification! He said that the country was to-day confronted with the deadly peril of corruption. A cancer is eating into her vitals whereof the essence is Purchased legislation, bribed public servants and the betrayal of the highest trusts.

ATTENTION BEATS!

We are authorized by the County Executive Committee to promise to the Beat rolling up the largest majority for Greeley and Brown and the Democratic State Ticket, in November, according to voting strength, a handsome BANNER to cost twenty dollars, bearing the inscription: "The Banner Beat of Calhoun County."

Beats desiring to enter the contest are requested to signify the same by note addressed to this paper, which we will publish.

READ THIS AND CIRCULATE IT.—It must not be forgotten that the laws of Alabama require all voters to register before voting. No ballot will be counted unless the name of the man who deposits it can be found on the Registration lists.

This is a matter of vital importance in this campaign, and we hope that Conservatives and Liberals everywhere will see to it that it is not neglected. Those who seek the protection of the laws must first render the laws all due observance.

THE CHALLENGE.

Editor, Montgomery Advertiser:

Some doubt has prevailed since the war as to which is the banner Democratic and Conservative county of Alabama.

To place this question beyond controversy or doubtful conjecture, we enclose herewith a challenge from Calhoun county to any and every county in the State to enter now the contest for this distinguished honor. The present campaign is one full of interest to every patriot, involving as it does the issues most vital that have ever been presented for the consideration of our people. The principles which are to determine and govern the future policy of the two opposing parties having been clearly defined and communicated to their respective platforms, the opposition is no longer doubtful, nor are the success or defeat of the Conservative party depend-on the weak or woe of the South, national fraternity or sectional antagonism, and the restoration of a Republican form of government with all of its benevolent results, or the establishment of centralised despotism with its measureless evils and intolerable oppressions. All true

Alabamians appreciate this fact, and will leave no stone unturned, and no humiliating means unemployed, to secure a conservative triumph. With this determination on the part of the people already made manifest throughout the State, a larger democratic and conservative vote will be cast in November next than than any previous election, since the war, and hence no favorable opportunity soon, if ever, will occur to determine the democratic and conservative strength of the several counties and decide as between them this disputed and unsettled question.

We propose that the Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Democratic and Conservative Party of the State shall decide the contest as soon as practicable after the election in November next, and present the champion county with a handsome Banner bearing the inscription:

"From the Executive Committee of the Democratic and Conservative Party

To the People of Alabama:

The blank after "To" to be filled with the name of the successful county. In order to provide the means for purchasing the banner we herewith enclose Five ($5)

Dollars to be handed to Col. Robert

Tyler, Chairman, &c., and suggest that every county entering the list of contestants be required to contribute a like amount and the contest be confined exclusively to the counties thus responding:

The Barbecue.

Some have asked the County Executive Committee whether or not cooked viands will be received at the table on the day of the Barbecue. We are authorized to say yes. A great crowd is expected, and it will do for them to go away unfed. The Barbecue was gotten up hurriedly and some of the Beasts have reported nothing through their Committees for lack of time. We say to the people of those Beasts, don't stay away on this account. If you can bring anything to contribute to the general store of provisions, do so. If not come along anyhow. This is no Town or Boat Barbecue. No one Beast could feed the great crowd that it is hoped will be here.

It is a county affair, gotten up by the Committee to draw a large crowd to hear the speakers who will be here by appointment, on the day set, Tuesday, October

1st, 1872. We hope to see five thousand people here on that day and not a hungry man among them in the evening.

We again postpone the sketch of Col. Herndon, by Sergeant, and our notice of the campaign documents the scalawags are furnishing the negroes. Plenty time to notice them before the election.

We return thanks to Maj. B. F. Jones, Sec'y, of the Rome, Ga. & Ala. Fair Association, for an invitation to attend the Fair on Oct.

8, 9, 10 & 11. Whether we go or not we hope it will be grand success.

meats to the Barbecue, are requested to have the same on the grounds by 12 o'clock if possible.

His steady, industrious

The Radicals, on the keen scent

after the Spoils, assisted by the money and influence of Grant's

Government at Washington will make a terrible fight for this State.

It will require all our vigilance, all our strength to keep them from wresting it from our possession.

If we are only true to ourselves

they cannot do it.

Parr with the largest and best assorted stock of plantation and family supplies ever brought to North

Alabama, and he is determined not or city in this section of Alabama or Georgia.

It.

The Radical negroes of this county will have a Barbecue at this place on Saturday (to-day) we understand, for the purpose of turning the Greeley tide. Some scalawags will address them—we cannot learn who. The whole affair has been managed in such a sneaking way, that it is hard to learn much; but the expenses of the thing, we hear, are borne out of the Radical campaign fund, dispensed by some mean whites in our midst.

It is further said that the crowd will be augmented by large numbers of negroes from other localities, brought free over the Selma, Rome and Dalton Railroad.

They cannot find enough negroes without county to make a good crowd, so they just ship them from abroad.

They are welcome to all the negro supporters in Calhoun whose votes they can buy through their bellies, with money furnished from Washington. The colored men who support Greeley and Brown cannot be bought with Grant's money, and in this they are superior to the white creatures who are doing his dirty work in our midst.

"Greeley will put your children into slavery;"

"Congress did not nominate Greeley;"

"Greeley is a Democrat;"

"Greeley will take your vote away from you;" is the lie, stuff and lies that the white scoundrels who are "running" Grant's interests, tell the colored men, and these are only a sample of a few of the mildest. Ought men who will deliberately tell such things be countenanced among gentlemen? We think not.

Duroc, a faithful old horse, older than a majority of the inhabitants of Jacksonville, is at last dead.

He was the most remarkable horse ever owned in this country.

His first owner, a school teacher named Garzy, frequently drove him to Talladega, thirty-six miles distant, after school hours, in the evening; and it is said he would drive him seventy miles a day without greatly fatiguing him. His last owner, Mr. Woodward, bought him about twenty-one years ago from Garzy. He used to drive Duroc to Rome fifty-two miles distant one day and back next, and he was humane in his treatment of him. Such a drive as that was as nothing to Duroc. At one time during the war some Confederate officers, struck with his appearance, conceived the idea that they would impress him, but the people of the town were so earnest in their solicitations that they should not, that they desisted and took a mule instead.

Duroc was something like twenty-seven years old, when he died, and was perhaps known to every adult citizen of the county.

We invite attention to the advertisement of Messrs. LeGrand & Co.

not because we fear it will be overlooked, but to add our testimony in favor of this excellent firm, from a personal acquaintance and transaction of business, running through

two years. Dr. M. P. LeGrand, the head of the house, has been justly classed among the merchant princes of the South; and he seems to possess a genius and intuition in the selection of his Agents and Clerks, equal to that of Napoleon

in the selection of his field Marshals. The immense capital employed, and large amount of business transacted, exceeding doubtless one million annually, enables them to offer Goods and Groceries at the lowest possible rates. Energetic, prompt, systematic, fair and liberal in all their dealings, we doubt whether there has been a single case of dissatisfaction among the thousands with whom they have transacted business. The facilities for quick shipment from Montgomery are equal to any city of the South, and now is the time to fill up your Fall and Winter stocks of Goods and Groceries, upon the most advantageous terms by ordering from LeGrand & Co., Montgomery, Ala.

The Mountains.

Liberty, like the eagle, builds her nest among the mountains and the last men on earth to be enslaved are those who draw in their freedom with the inspiration of their native soil.

All history records, and establishes the truth of this assertion, and the conduct of the bold mountaineers of Alabama, adds another testimonial to the many that already grow the histori-cic page to the credit of their patriots and their virtue. They are rallying almost

A son of Mr. Hickman, of Harrison county, Ky., was recently bitten by a rattlesnake, and after suffering a few hours, was cured by a poultice made of green tobacco.

Chandler, of Michigan, wrote thus to the Postmaster at Albany: "I am directed by the Postmaster-General to say to you that any assistance you can give the Louisville movement will be considered done for the Administration." What clever fellows are Christian Chandler and Chorpington Creswell—and what stout swearing they must have done when the "Louisville movement" collapsed like a pretense egg, leaving nothing but a foul smell behind. Yet there are few knaves, who, thinking the people are fools are trying to convince them that Duncan & Co. were not bought and paid for by Grant.

Governor Seymour made his first speech in favor of Greeley and Reform at Utica on Thursday evening. The Governor said he called upon, in order to subserve the interests of the people, to lay aside all personal pride and passion, and assist in electing Horace Greeley to the Presidency. If such men as Mr. Greeley can ignore old prejudices, said the speaker, every Republican can. The Governor said that one important part of Mr. Greeley's mission, when he goes to Washington, will be to show the people the books, and expose all the corruption and wrong of the present Administration.

Auditor Graham, of Louisiana, who would rather be right than stay out of jail, seems to be comfortably fixed in his prison-quarters. He declines to get a writ of habeas corpus, or to accept pardon from the Governor, because his release in any such way would leave unsettled the question of his right to disobey the fraudulent judgment against the State. As Mr. Graham persists in his disobedience, his prospects for a few months' imprisonment are excellent. It is little less than a miracle that an official in a carpet-bag State should not only refuse to plunder the people, but should actually go to jail rather than to do so.

A Big Swindle.

Col. J. J. Parker, in his second card, published on our first page, states this fact: During the Smith administration, the Alabama State Journal, at that time the official journal, and owned by four Radicals, Miller, Stokes, Thewell, and Pennington, was required to print the State laws. The job was executed by Barrett & Brown, job printers, in Montgomery, at the time, and cost the Journal proprietors $200. These parties, however, brought in a bill against the State, for this very job, of $30,371.70. This account was certified as correct, by Chas. A. Miller, at that time scalawag-Secretary of State, and one of the Journal proprietors, and actually drawn from the State Treasury, and divided between himself and his partners. Let the tax-payers of Alabama, who had to foot that bill of robbery, remember the fact when they come to vote.—Tuscaloosa Times.

Three Classes of Drunkards.
At the second meeting of the "American Association for the cure of Inebriates," Dr. Parish delivered an essay—the result of his long experience in the cure of inebriates. He divided the latter into three classes: The first, confirmed inebriates, or professional debauchees, whose purposes in life seem to be limited to the gratification of appetites or passions; the second is the emotional class, who are described as persons without decided intention to do wrong, and without any abiding purpose to do right, and who are the victims of their own moral weakness, or cupidity or recklessness of others; and the third are accidental inebriates—"men of good principle and character, who show and acknowledge their infirmity and endeavor to overcome it. Students, authors, statesmen, and overworked business men furnish a considerable percentage of this class." The majority of the first class, according to Dr. Parish are incurable.

More Chinese Ingenuity.

A company of Chinese have been engaged the present season in catching mountain trout from Lake Tahoe, and have supplied a large proportion of the dainty fish brought to this market. Late, however, the profits of second dealers have been rendered precarious, in consequence of the tendency of mountain trout to feed on such inedible substances as scrap-iron. The railroad spikes, rail-clamps, etc., found in the stomachs of these fish are of modern pattern, precisely similar to those used on the Central Pacific railroad, and as the trout do not come ashore in pursuit of such diet, it is presumed that the Chinese engaged in their capture know some explanation of the mystery. The fish sell at 35 cents per pound, and it is not uncommon to find in some of the specimens pieces of iron weighing as much as the fish itself. Dealers in the city are now compelled to make a careful inspection of shipments from Lake Tahoe before crediting them at current rates.—San Francisco Chronicle.
